

Ardbeg Lord Robertson Single Cask

Lord Robertson Single Cask A rare Ardbeg single cask bottling, laid down ten years ago. All proceeds from the sale will be donated Erskine, the charity which cares for ex-servi

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

Ask a question about this product

Manufacturer

Description

Ardbeg Lord Robertson Single Cask

Availability: Out of stock.

£ 220.00

- Add to Wishlist

Overview

A rare Ardbeg single cask bottling, laid down ten years ago. All proceeds from the sale will be donated Erskine, the charity which cares for ex-service men and women.

- 70cl
- Single Cask 1217 from the year 2000
- Non chill-filtered

Description

Tasting Notes

The whisky has a superb complexity and incredible finesse and balance. The peat is sophisticated and sweet with chocolate and toffee, smoky violets and creamy meringue with cherry pie, clove and star anise. The palate is dark and deep yet also sensuous and gentle – peat smoke, sweet barley and cocoa.

A mighty whisky with supreme delicacy.

Background

Arbeg: Arbeg Lord Robertson Single Cask

This rare Arbeg single cask bottling was laid down 10 years ago to commemorate the distillery visit of Lord Robertson, formerly NATO secretary general.

Born in Port Ellen, Lord Robertson could be considered the original Lord of the Isles and is an lfeach through and through. He has hand signed all 202 bottles from this special cask.

As a dedicated supporter of Erskine, the charity that cares for ex-service men and women, all proceeds from the sale of Lord Robertson's Single Cask bottling will be donated to this worthy charity.

- Hand-signed by Lord Robertson
- Just 202 bottles available from Wednesday 7th of July
- 1 per member only!

Reviews

There are yet no reviews for this product.